The first book in the trilogy, Shattered Innocence, introduces us to Emily, a young woman who has been living with the scars of sexual abuse for years. Emily's struggle to find love and happiness is complicated by her fear of intimacy and her inability to trust others. As she begins to explore her newfound feelings for a man named Jake, Emily must confront her past and learn to heal her shattered innocence.

The second book in the trilogy, Shattered Dreams, follows Emily's journey as she attempts to build a life for herself and her young son. Emily's struggle to overcome her past is compounded by the challenges of single motherhood and the constant threat of her abuser. As she fights to protect her son and find a way to move forward, Emily must learn to trust herself and believe in the possibility of redemption.

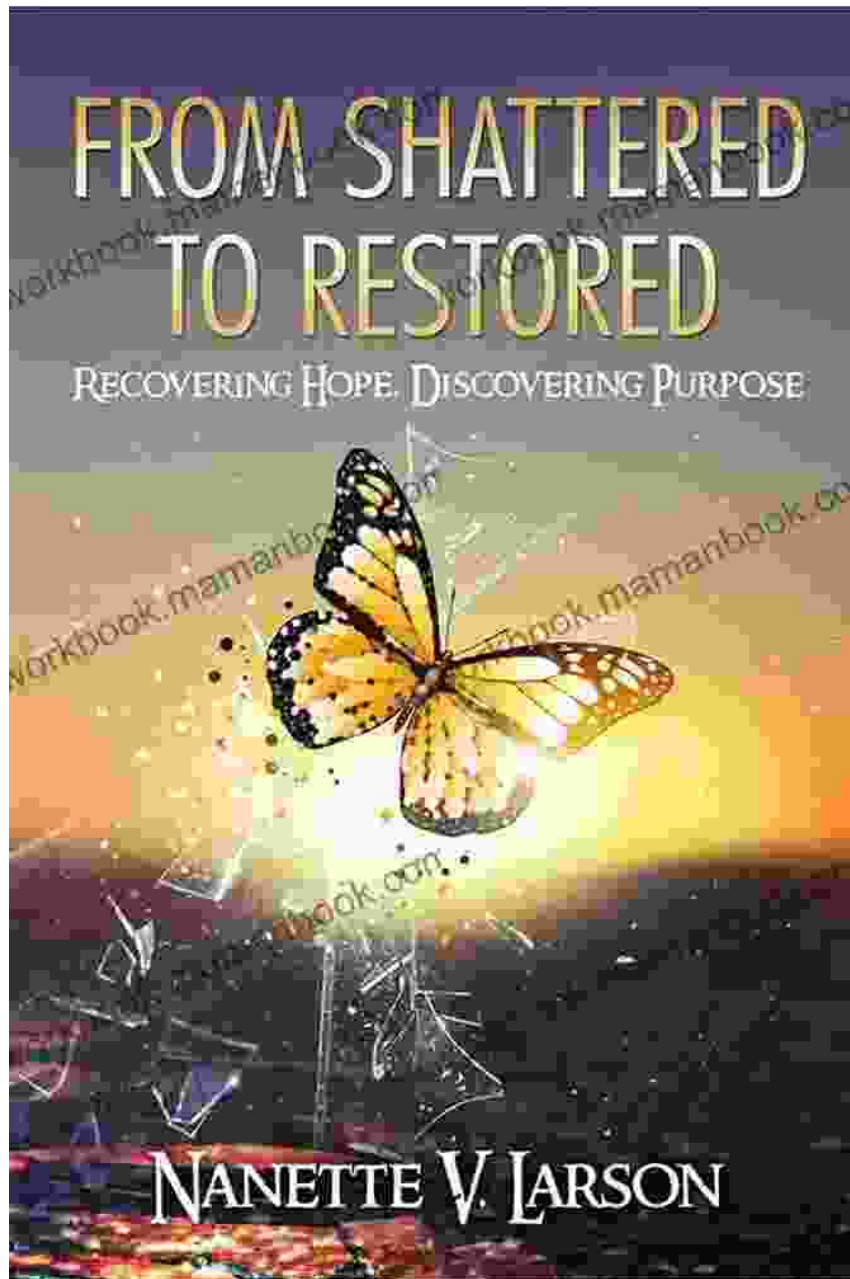

“Love conquers all.
She couldn't have been more wrong.”
